

Programs for Prospective Parents

Building a Family

Adoption Network Cleveland has multiple ways to help parents seeking to adopt or provide a permanent home to a child in need. As a nonprofit organization, we provide unbiased support and education.

- Helpline - Individualized one-on-one answers for parents adopting from foster care, providing kinship care, or seeking guardianship.
- Adoption 101: Where Do I Begin? (Virtual Workshop)

Helpline

Individuals needing guidance and support during the adoption process are encouraged to contact our Helpline. Our experienced staff are able to guide prospective parents through the adoption process and provide expert non-biased support. We also provide support and guidance for foster parents seeking to adopt and relatives navigating the intricacies of caring for young family members.

Call our Helpline, 9 am–4:30 pm Monday through Friday, or email Julius Jackson anytime.

For More Information

Julius Jackson
Training & Volunteer Coordinator
julius.jackson@adoptionnetwork.org
(216) 482-2324

Adoption 101: Where Do I Begin?

Considering becoming a parent or expanding a family through adoption can be both exciting and overwhelming. There is so much information available about adoption that people often ask, “Where do I begin?”

Adoption 101 is a workshop intended for people looking into adoption for the first time and is designed to help prospective adoptive parents prepare, build confidence, and make a decision about the best route for their adoption journey.

Upcoming Workshop Dates (9 am-12 pm):

Saturday, March 9, 2024

Saturday, June 8, 2024

Saturday, September 7, 2024

Saturday, December 7, 2024

Info & Registration:

<http://bit.ly/WhereDoIBeginANC>