ADOPTION NETWORK CLEVELAND 2015 ANNUAL REPORT

– Covering Fiscal Year 2015: October 1, 2014 to September 30, 2015

DEAR FRIENDS,

This year our organization stood witness as one of our founding goals was, finally, achieved.

Friday, March 20, 2015 was “opening day” here in Ohio and hundreds came to Columbus to celebrate and take part. This marked the culmination of 27 years of effort spearheaded by Adoption Network Cleveland to pass legislation giving Ohio-born adoptees access to their original birth certificates. The enacted legislation opened records to all 400,000 adoptees from Ohio’s previously closed period of 1964-1996.

Opening Day was amazing. Hundreds flooded to Columbus the evening before to convene, share and prepare. Advocates, policymakers, and adoptees all shared from the heart. Together we viewed An Adoptee ROARED in Ohio: The Betsie Norris Story by documentary filmmaker Jean Strauss. Hundreds got their records request forms in order and notarized. Jean Strauss and her son Jonathan filmed throughout. The next morning we led a procession from the hotel to Ohio Vital Statistics – instead of the old chant “What do we want? Open Records! When do we want them? NOW!” we chanted “What do we want? Open Records! When do we want them? TODAY!” The morning was spent in line, and for many in tears, as the Vital Statistics staff welcomed us in. In the afternoon press conference four adoptees were presented with their records in a moving ceremony (see videos on Adoption Network Cleveland’s YouTube Channel). We think we are safe in saying that all who participated felt like they were part of something of epic proportion!

So many wonderful things took place this year. Please read this brief annual report for an overview of our achievements. Adoption Network Cleveland continues to touch the lives of thousands – adoptees, adoptive parents, birthparents, youth in foster care awaiting permanency, professionals in the field.

We could not achieve any of this without the personal passion of our staff, volunteers and, of course, donors and funders. Thank you for being a part of this special story.

In the spirit of truth,
