

Annual Report

October 1, 2012 – September 30, 2013

Dear Friends,

We need to catch our breath as we reflect on our whirlwind 25th Anniversary year. Numerous partnerships, intensive legislative work in Columbus, National Conference hosting, 10 celebrations of our 25th Anniversary with one for each with a program we serve – filled our calendar (and maybe yours!)

We hit the ground running with a partnership with Cleveland State University to bring author and documentary filmmaker Ann Fessler to Cleveland to debut her film A Girl Like Her to a large audience at CSU.

Early in the new year, we launched ROAR! 2013, a campaign to support legislation we introduced in the House and Senate to allow Ohio adult adoptees, adopted between 1964 and 1996, access to their original birth certificate. This work was extensive during the spring, then took a backseat for several months while the General Assembly was considering the state budget. It picked up strong again, after our new fiscal year began in October and it was signed into law in December.

We partnered with the American Adoption Congress to bring their 34th Annual Conference to Cleveland in April. This was our third time hosting and each time brings a new dimension of understanding of the lifelong journey of adoption. One of our exciting keynote presenters was Olympic Gold Medalist Dominique Moceanu with her sister Jen Bricker, who was adopted as an infant.

We trained parents and adoption professionals. As a subcontractor for the Ohio Child Welfare Training Program, we quadrupled the number of adoption professionals trained. Our Post Adopton work continued to attract more and more adoptive families. Additionally, we sponsored the Inaugural Weaving Cultures Family Camp, which was primarily accomplished through the generous work of adoptive parent volunteers.

We ended our 25th Anniversary year with some exciting awards: Organization of the Year award from Community Shares, Pillar Award for Community Service – Executive Director of the Year; and a Congressional Angels in Adoption Award for one of our long-term members and volunteers.

As in every year, but especially as we reflect on the role we've played in impacting our community over 25 years, we are grateful to you – our members, our partners and our funders – for being with us every step of the way.
